

2026 Event Calendar

Finding the right employees for your organisation can be a resource-intensive and competitive process. The Careers and Employability team can connect you with our talented students and recent graduates who are ready to step into the workforce.

Scan the QR or Register Here

q.surveys.unimelb.edu.au/jfe/form/SV_bHQgRmxU4bHDQDI

Date	Name of event/activity	About
2 March – 13 March	Grad Job Series Flagship event: Careers Fair 11 March, 11:00am - 4:00pm Wilson Hall, Parkville campus	Engage in meaningful conversations with our students at the annual Grad Job Series! Connect with the next generation of thinkers and creators at the Careers Fair, run insightful workshops and showcase your value as a potential employer. Be a part of the series to support your upcoming graduate recruitment goals!
16 March – 20 March	Employability Week	Deliver an Employer Talk to promote your company culture, programs and career pathways.
Various dates	Industry Insights Program	Specially designed for our Narrm Scholars* (go.unimelb.edu.au/cyt8), this program is an opportunity to host a group of students for a morning or afternoon to give them a taste of life as part of your team.
27 July – 7 August	Internships and Jobs Series Flagship event: Internships and Jobs Fair 4 August, 11:00am – 2:00pm Melbourne Connect, Parkville campus	Spotlight your internship and summer vacation programs, or other jobs you have available to students. Ideal for structured internship programs, and flexible, casual or part-time work that students can commit to during their studies.
10 August – 14 August	Employability Week	Deliver an Employer Talk to promote your company culture, programs and career pathways.
24 August – 4 September	Careers in China	If you have an office or affiliate in China, we invite you to participate in this unique series. This series aims to attract motivated students who are interested in internships and/or graduate roles located in China.
24 November	Career Launchpad	Join us for a dynamic event designed to connect you with the next generation of professionals. These enthusiastic students will graduate in semester 2, 2026 and are ready to put together a fantastic application and interview!

*Narrm Scholars at the University of Melbourne are students who receive tailored academic, cultural, and personal support as part of a program designed to help Indigenous Australian students and other underrepresented cohorts succeed and thrive at the University.